Locals Tackle Varsity in Second Game of Series

Flinn Gets a Home Run-Shriver Will be on Mound This Afternoon.

Although defeated yesterday in the first clash of a two-game series with the 'Varsity at Morgantown, the Fairmont Collegians made a great fight and were only one lone run on the short end at the end of the contest. Today with "Pop" Shriver on the mound they will seek to get revenge for yesterday's defeat. Lemley and Wood for the 'Varsity and Johnson for Fairmont pitched good ball yesterday. While they could not show full mid-season form, they were twirling good ball for the opening of the

The game was a see-saw affair, the home team finally putting the winning run across in the seventh inning.

Dawson and Lemley were the star batters for the 'Varsity, each man annexing two hits during the contest, while Flinn got a home run for the Fairmont aggregation. Dorsey and Hood got two base hits, Hood's being a very long double and brought in needed runs.

A good crowd witnessed the game. With fair weather today it is expected that a large delegation of local fans will make the trip to Morgantown to root for the Collegians in the second battle. The score:

GOOD HITTERS

It Is Evident That as Season Goes on Batters Will Shine.

MORGANTOWN, April 10. - Of course early practice games, nor even the first regularly scheduled games of a baseball season will not clearly indicate the number and quality of the good hitters that the West Virginia University baseball team possesses but whatever happens in the develop ment of the other men, the Mountaineers are certain to have no less than five reliable stickers on the nine by the time the important games come

This quintette is composed of "Biz" Dawson in center field; Joe Harrick in left field; Walter Dorsey in right field; Homer Martin behind the bat and Mathew Turkovich at third base. Dawson in both his previous seasons on the 'Varsity has been a strong hitter, batting better than three hundred in both 1918 and 1919. Harrick in his first year was erratic. but last year he poled the ball with great ferocity and was near the top of the hitters when the season ended. Homer Martin is a player who just found his position, By FRED TURBYVILLE. standing with the Giants once more both on the field and from the standing plenty of class in the infield but none in the pitching workouts. in the infield but none in the pitching staff. There is class in that When the Giants got Art Nehf from the Boston Braves they completed a staff almost as good as the best. And the best is wearing the colors of the Cincinnati team.

Nehf probably will use the slow borsey, it will be recalled, hit for an ball to good advantage this year. But average of .527 last year and is keep-that isn't all he has.

Fred Toney's fadeaway is working dandy. He has great strength in his hard hitters here. Last year his stick-Cincinnati team.

The three standbys are Fred Toney, Phil Douglas and Art Nehf, with Jess Barnes and Rube Benton completing the quintet of regulars.

Douglas, apparently, has been cured of his unreliable tricks. He's in good
